FATHER KILLS TWO CHILDREN AND HIMSELF

Taking a terrible revenge on his wife, who had divorced him and married another man, Ludwig E. Jaeger of Winthrop lured his two little girls to Winthrop boulevard beach this noon by promising them candy, shot each trusting child through the head, then shot himself.

Oliver, the elder, five years old, died a few minutes later in Dr. H. H. Metcalf's Hospital in Winthrop Center. Anita, four years old, lived for a half hour. The father's death was expected at any moment.

MOTHER NEARLY CRAZED BY GRIEF.

SAYS RICHESON IS GUILTY

Douglas Richeson, a member of the Bar, charged V. T. Richeson, before leaving Boston for his home in Chicago and after a long conference with the attorney, who is accused of the murder of Aris Lunsell, said today that he was certain of the innocence of his brother and accused of his guilt.

"I am going home," said Douglas Richeson, "absolutely assured of the outcome of this case. I have talked with my brother's lawyer. We have discussed the remarkable position in which he is placed and he has concluded on his absolute innocence of the fearful crime that stands against him.

If I thought there was doubt as to the outcome of this case I should not go home. But there are things that will come out at the trial of my brother about which I cannot speak now that will put an entirely different light on this case as it has been presented to the public.

My brother is innocent and he will go free."

Sure Richeson is Guiltless.

Deputy E. Harrison, who lives at 400 Bond, Va., the home of the Richeson family, and accompanied V. T. Richeson to the spot where the crime was committed. He has been in the city since the arrest of his brother. He has been in the city since the arrest of his brother. He has been in the city since the arrest of his brother.

SWEETEST GIRL IN THE WORLD!

You'll See Her When You Get To-morrow's Sunday American Monthly Magazine, Which Is Equal to the Ten and Fifteen Cent Ones, But Costs You Nothing Extra

The sweetest girl in the world? Do you know her? She has eyes like the sky in the autumn; when the sunbeams chase all the gray-white clouds away. She has hair like the brown ones that cluster round the branches of the chestnut and hickory and beech trees, when old Jack Frost begins his game. She has lips of deeper blue than the crimson of the autumn, waiting for the father, cooling that of the silver snowflake of Winter.

Do you know her? She is THE AUTUMN GIRL and she will be presented to you in all her loveliness with to-morrow's SUNDAY AMERICAN.

This beautiful girl is the cover design of the American Sunday Magazine which is one of the most beautiful parts of the SUNDAY AMERICAN. The drawing is in pencil and is one of the things that make the magazine so lovely.

To-morrow's magazine is the second issue of the high-class publication issued as a supplement of the SUNDAY AMERICAN. The second number is BETTER THAN THE FIRST—the third will be better too, the second.

Officials—Referee, Langford of Trinity; umpire, Williams of Pennsylvania; field judge, Sharpe of Yale; head line-man, Pendleton of Bowdoin. Time—Four fifteen-minute periods.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 4.—More than 30,000 spectators, banking Osborne field in a solid mass of humanity, this afternoon inaugurated the season's first real important football game—that between Harvard and Princeton—with a tumult of enthusiasm which had been accumulating since the ancient rivals last clashed fifteen years ago.

HARVARD RULES BIG FAVORITE.

The weather was perfect for football; yards through center and field on a and while it was not brilliantly clear, the right end ran. Vaughan kicked to Harvard's 15 yard line, where Huntington was downed by Pendleton. Harvard failed to gain at center and Vaughan kicked to Harvard's 15 yard line, where Chryse was downed.

Vaughan returned the punt to Harvard's 5 yard line, where the ball on a fumble went out of the back. It was Harvard's ball. Huntington's kick was blocked, but Harvard regained the ball on its own 15-yard line.

Gardner was hurt and Jenkins took his place. The first period was a pretty close, although several times Wendell eluded through the Princeton line for large gains and first downs. Princeton line was not stiffer than expected, but the Tiger line could do nothing with the Harvard forwards and after one rush always went to punting. The period ended with a ball to Princeton's possession, in its 25 yards. Score, 0 to 0.

THE GAME.
FIRST PERIOD.

Vaughan kicked off to Harvard's 15 yard line and was run down by Potter to the Harvard line. Huntington kicked back to the center of the field, where Wilson was downed by Wendell. The Tigers gained

'CORRUPT' ACT A DOUBLE JOKE

No more Republican self-praise for that long-looked "Corrupt Practices" act. John D. 2 having been discovered in the bill, the G. O. P. leaders in Massachusetts have awakened today, almost on the eve of election, that it would do to maintain the party for having passed that act in the last Legislature.

All through the present campaign the reasons for the Prohibitionist ticket have been again, with variations. "We, the Republicans, passed the 'Corrupt Practices' act to the last Legislature. We, the Prohibitionists, have passed it to the present Legislature. It is a double joke, and at our 'Corrupt Practices' act."

But now that self-praise is dead, dead as a doornail, and the Prohibitionist party is dead, the act of which the Republicans have been boasting—on which they are now silent—was an amendment to the original corrupt practices law. In the 1910 campaign Governor Fox on the stump called repeatedly for the widest publicity in campaign expense. Under the lack of Governor Fox's national demand the Prohibitionist Legislature framed and passed an amendment to the former law relating to corrupt practices.

The amendment seemed sufficient at the time and Governor Fox signed the bill. As soon as this was done the Prohibitionist Legislature passed a bill, claiming all credit for the bill and having upon it time and again as a new proof of Republican integrity and desire for good methods. They signed it another great piece of beneficent legislation.

See how this world comes out. The amendment in substance limited all the money that could be used by any candidate in the next campaign. One provision was that no money could be used for any purpose except for the purpose of the campaign. The amendment was passed by a vote of 100 to 10.

Now the same figures become known as the amendment. The amendment was passed by a vote of 100 to 10. The amendment was passed by a vote of 100 to 10.

HARVARD ELEVEN IS PICKED TO WIN FROM PRINCETON FAVOR HARVARD IN TIGER GAME

By Ted Parke.
PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 4.—For the first time in Princeton's history, Harvard and Princeton met on the gridiron on Saturday. The Princeton team, which has been picked to win the game, is expected to win the game, but the Harvard team is expected to win the game.

Harvard has Advantage.
Another advantage which Harvard has over Princeton is the fact that the Princeton team has never been handled in any game. It is the only team in the Princeton team which has never been handled in any game. It is the only team in the Princeton team which has never been handled in any game.

Every Man in Shape.
The Harvard eleven ran out early after a refreshing night's rest on the Hotel Astor. They were in the best of shape for the game. They were in the best of shape for the game. They were in the best of shape for the game.
